

Jennifer Wagner Athletic Scholarship

Jennifer Wagner was a proud graduate of Grangeville High School in 1983. Her best high school sport was basketball where she was a dynamic scoring point guard who went on to become a Jr. College All Regional Player for North Idaho College.

As an adult, she excelled in every sport she tried including soccer, snow skiing, water skiing, distance running and was a single digit handicapper in golf.

Her family is proud to award a scholarship in her name to a deserving Grangeville High School graduate in the amount of $500.

1. The scholarship will be awarded to one female athlete annually, with a preference given to basketball.
2. The scholarship will be awarded without regarding to race, color, creed or marital status.
3. The scholarship will be awarded on the basis of merit.
4. The scholarship will be awarded to a Grangeville High School graduate who is wanting to further their education at a University, College, or Vocational Technical Program of their choice.
